Following points represent a good web design,

1. Responsive design
2. Easy navigation
3. Grid based layout
4. Page load time
5. Effective content
6. Simplicity

1. Responsive design:

Website should be device freindly. When open in mobile phone, gets mobile layout. According to device width and height, website should be able to change its content position.