In Previous Years Questions

A sentence is a fundamental unit of communication that consists of a group of words expressing a complete thought.

Sentences are categorized into four main types:

1. Declarative or Assertive Sentences

- These sentences make statements or assertions.
- Example: She went to school.

2. Exclamatory Sentences

- Expressing strong feelings or emotions, exclamatory sentences often end with an exclamation mark.
- Example: ‘She failed and still went to school!’

3. Interrogative Sentences

- These sentences pose questions and typically start with question words.
- Example: ‘Did she go to school?’

4. Imperative Sentences

- Imperative sentences convey commands, requests, or entreaties.
- Example: ‘Please go to school.’

Write a brief note on sentence.

Related posts:

1. Define noun and give its types along with suitable examples.
2. What is direct and indirect speech? Write rules for changing direct speech into indirect speech.
3. Why do we need to enrich vocabulary during communication?